University sexual assault report: Half of all students harassed at least once in 2016

Updated 1 Aug 2017, 5:29pm

More than half of all university students were sexually harassed on at least one occasion last year, a landmark survey by the Human Rights Commission has found.

Fifty-one per cent of students were sexually harassed at least once in 2016, the commission found, while one in four students was sexually harassed in a university setting on at least one occasion in 2016.

A university setting includes on campus, travelling
